If You Do Anything
About This You
Are a Fascist

On the West Coast Harry Bridges, president of the striking CIO Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, says that if the United States attempts to use troops to load military cargoes aboard ships the strikers will fight.

Continues Bridges: "If any labor union in this country stands idly by while the Army engages in strike-breaking, then organized labor is on its way to extinction as a free institution."

Big words from Mr. Bridges, who would have been sent back to his native Australia long ago but for the intervention of the late Roosevelt administration for strictly political reasons.

I suppose if the Army took Bridges at his word and beat down the strikers and loaded the military ships anyway, that would make all of us a bunch of Fascists.

This is just another instance of a professional trouble-maker acting like a Communist and then calling anybody who does anything about it a Fascist.

Americans do not accept either (1) ultimatums from imported leaders or (2) the idea that were isn't any middle-of-the-road policy for this country and its people.

The government and the Army have a responsibility that extends beyond the rights of either the strikers or the ship-owners—the responsibility of feeding and supplying the troops and civilian Americans that we have placed on enemy soil in the Pacific. They are a part of all of us—sons and daughters of trade unionists as well as of stockholders.

No organization and particularly no one man is going to prevent America from discharging that duty.

Mr. Bridges is in dire danger of hearing pronounced against himself that famous order of the sea: "Blow the man down!"

Politically, Eggs Aid Target More Than They Do Throwing

By JAMES THRASHER
One incident of Henry Wallace's journey through North Carolina symbolizes the third party candidate's hostile reception in the South. A man was seen to hoist a boy of about 10 onto his shoulders so the youngster could get a clearer shot at the target of his eggs and tomatoes.

Most of the egg, vegetable and rock-throwing seems to have been done by kids of teen age and less. But they must have had the moral support, as the little boy had the physical support, of their elders. None who took part in these exhibitions, whatever their age, behaved with much growing-up foresight. If they had they would have seen that they were defeating their own purpose.

For they forgot to consider that eggs and tomatoes have this peculiarity as political weapons: they can be used so much more effectively by those who are hit than by those who do the throwing. So the Carolinians lost the battle when they fired the first salvo.

Maybe Mr. Wallace didn't exactly enjoy the sticky sensation of being smacked by an egg or the instinctive humiliation of being jeered and pelted in public. But his behavior showed most of the onslaught showed he was shrewd enough to realize that he was collecting political advantage at the same time that he was collecting yolk stains on his shirt.

Mr. Wallace can't really hope to get far in the South. But every time some egg-slinging young'un in Dixie makes him look slightly messy he also makes him look slightly martyred. And for a man who can only try for a good showing, the few votes nicked up as a result are all to the good.

Thus he can almost welcome anything that tries to deny him the right of free speech by force. Such undemocratic actions offend a lot of people who would never think of voting for Henry Wallace. Probably they also win the support of some slightly emotional Northerners who had been undecided before.

But Mr. Wallace's hostile reception was more than undemocratic. It was a blatant announcement that his attackers were suffering from mental impotence. Egg-throwing isn't a sign of power or righteous wrath.

If his Carolina trip had been viewed by some people might have taken a longer look into one of the biggest pork barrels in our political history. A billion dollars a year—that's what Mr. Wallace was offering for the Southern vote. He would collect this huge sum by a special, discriminatory tax on the profits of big corporations with capital invested in the South.

People might have wondered how long those corporations would stay in the South under such conditions. They might have wondered just how the South would have benefited if those corporations moved out, or if they were taxed so heavily that the region's further industrial development was stifled.

But the illogic of Mr. Wallace's billion-dollar hoodlodge was lost in the confusion, and the third-party standard bearer emerged as a rather dramatic figure best by the rabble. For that kindness—perhaps not wholly unexpected—Mr. Wallace can thank his ill-wishers down in Dixie.

Free Enterprise Meeting Here Tonight at 8

Vital questions will be discussed. Local businessmen are urged to attend.

Russia Demands Lifting of Jap Strike Ban

Washington, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Soviet Russia's ambassador demanded today that the 11-nation Far Eastern commission reverse Gen. Douglas MacArthur's policy banning strikes by government employees in Japan.

The ambassador, Alexander S. Panyushkin, is Russia's representative on the commission, the top Allied policy-making agency for the Pacific.

Panyushkin charged in a statement that MacArthur's policy, which was carried out by the Japanese government, violated the 1945 Potsdam declaration and existing policies of the FEC.

"The Soviet delegation considers that the Far Eastern commission cannot pass such a gross violation of the supreme command—of the FEC decision," Panyushkin said.

He called on the commission to "request" MacArthur, the Allied Supreme commander in Japan, to revoke his no-strike directive of July 22 and a Japanese government ordinance of July 31 putting directives into effect.

The envoy also proposed that "repressive measures against the workers and employees of governmental enterprises and institutions should be discontinued."

In Tokyo and over the Moscow radio, Russia has been assailing the MacArthur action for weeks. Russia's representative on the commission, allied counsel for Japan, Maj. Gen. Kiselev, demanded that a special meeting August 28 that the order be revoked, Panyushkin noted.

Full Program for Queen Contestants

A full program for contestants entered in the Rodeo Queen contest has been arranged for each day during the preliminary week.

The program was announced by Chairman E. P. Young, Jr. is: 8:30 a.m.—9 a.m.: Registration at Hotel Barlow. Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. Lloyd Spencer and Mrs. Terrell Cornelius, members of Hostess Committee.

10 a.m.—10:30 a.m.: Street parade led by Rodeo Queen Contestants competing that day.

12 Noon: Luncheon for contestants.

1 p.m.—4 p.m.: Free period for contestants. All contestants will be guests of the Hotel Barlow during the week of September 20-26.

4 p.m.: Party for contestants and their Mothers to be given at the home of one of the hostesses.

6 p.m.: Dinner at the Hotel Barlow for the contestants.

8 p.m.: 3rd District Rodeo and Rodeo Queen's Contest at Fair Park arena.

All contestants are welcomed to ride each night in the grand entry of the rodeo.

Originally, the preliminary competition was to have been carried out in accordance with a county schedule. However, a number of the outlying counties in the district failed to participate. For this reason, it has become necessary to hold the preliminaries in accordance with the following schedule:

Monday, September 20—entries from Clinton, Malvern, Delight, and Bradley.

Tuesday, September 21—entries from Columbus, Palmox, Washington, and Waldo.

Wednesday, September 22—entries from Hope only. There are six local girls entered in the contest.

Two contestants will be selected each night to compete in the finals which will be held on Thursday, September 23.

As stated on the entry blank, all contestants will be registered at Rodeo Queen's Headquarters, Barlow Hotel, between 8:30 and 9 a.m. on the day of their preliminary competition. Mrs. Roy Anderson, Chairman of the Hostess and Reception Committee will be in charge of registrations.

Stores to Close Half Day Sept. 23

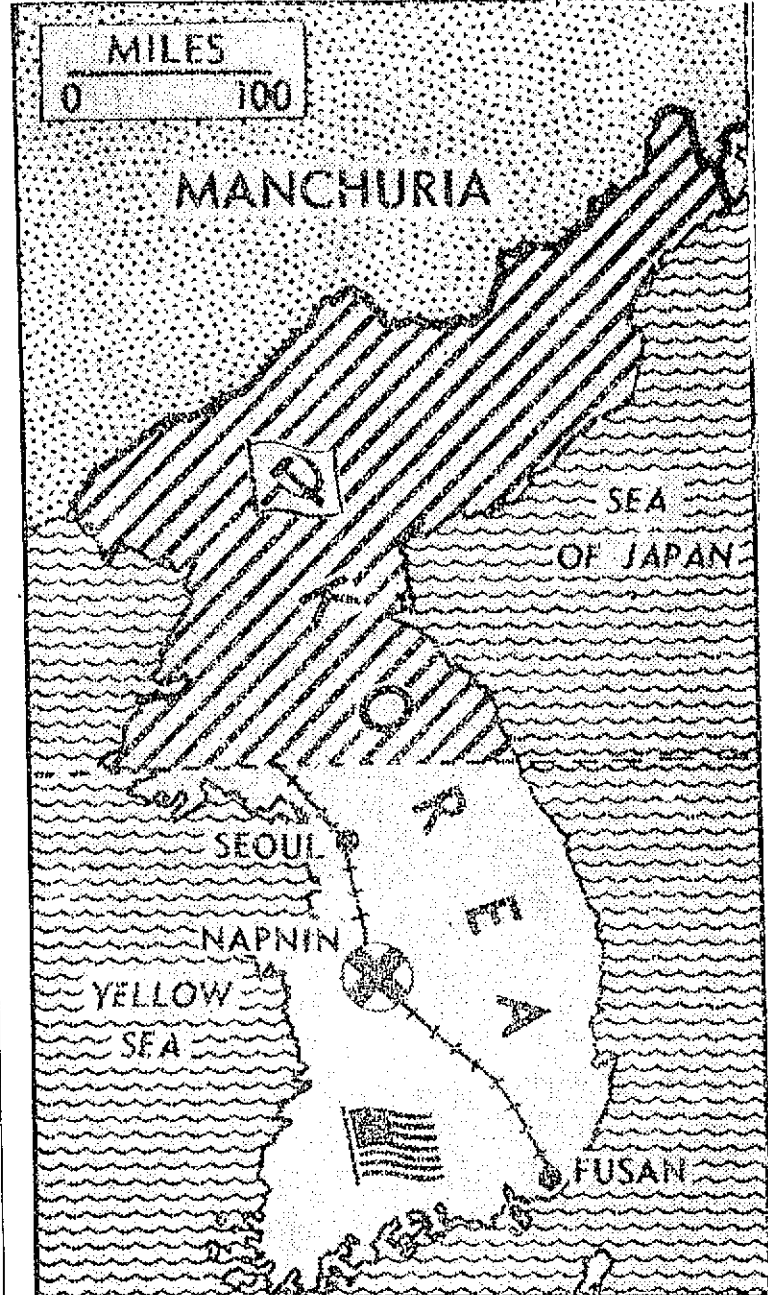

Stores and other business organizations of Hope will close Thursday noon, September 23, to allow employees to attend the Third District Livestock show.

A petition was circulated earlier this week and a majority of businesses signed. A feature of the city as long as such calls do not jeopardize safety of property inside the city. There will be a charge for equipment on all outside fires. Residential or guest fires will cost $20 and industrial or mercantile fires will cost $100.

The city reserves the right to decline to make a loan if at any time equipment cannot be spared.

Defines Rules on Outside Fire Department Calls
City of Hope officials today announced that the Fire Department would answer calls outside the city as long as such calls do not jeopardize safety of property inside the city. There will be a charge for equipment on all outside fires. Residential or guest fires will cost $20 and industrial or mercantile fires will cost $100.

UN Considers Invasion in India

By The Associated Press
The United Nations took under consideration today India's invasion of the princely state of Hyderabad.

Indian troops nudged closer to the capital from the East and West, narrowing the gap to 123 miles by capturing Zahirabad, 63 miles west of Hyderabad City, and reaching Nakrekal, 60 miles east.

Hyderabad's foreign minister told the U. N. Security Council India is committing an act of aggression.

The British government said it has refused to accede to the Indian union and India struck into the state from all directions Monday, asserting there was disorder.

Hyderabad asked swift orders for a cease fire, the withdrawal of Indian troops and U. N. mediation.

The State department said Dutch Foreign Minister Derkudo Stikker is en route to Washington on his own initiative to discuss with U. S. officials the spread of communism. The Reds are active in the rich Deccan East India.

The British government said it has trimmed the British trade deficit to $460,000,000 in the first half of the year, a reduction of three-fourths.

France was unhappy setting for the U. N. meeting. Some 100,000 strikers were out in the steel, plane and automobile industries. They fought riotously on the boulevards yesterday, injuring 100 people.

Harrison to Be Host of Southern Baptist Meet

Harrison, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The Southern Baptist convention will have an assembly ground for the summer encampment of Southern Baptist churches at a site eight miles northeast of Harrison.

The Harrison Chamber of Commerce will furnish the 1947 acre tract on the Missouri Pacific railroad and adjacent to the city. White river lake to be formed by Bill Shoals dam. The chamber of commerce was informed a five-year, $3,500,000 building program is planned and that the project could eventually accommodate conventions with attendance up to 10,000.

Selection of the Harrison site was made yesterday by a special convention committee headed by the Rev. Perry F. Welch of San Antonio, Tex., formerly pastor of the First Baptist church of Pine Bluff.

Sites near Batesville, Ark., and Hollister, Mo., also were under consideration and T. C. Hester, Harrison Chamber of Commerce and Baptist leader, was notified of choice of the Harrison location by Mr. Welch.

Minor Fire
An automobile owned by Martin Gehring caught fire on downtown Main Street this morning but the blaze was extinguished before serious damage was done. Short in the wiring caused the fire.

Youths Set Fire to Man Asleep

Denver, Sept. 16.—(UPI)—Police today sought two boys who deliberately beaped trash paper on a sleeping vagrant, set it afire and then laughed gleefully as he was burned critically while trying to put out the flames.

The victim was Ben Fuller, 49, known to police for years as "neighborhood drunk" the boys' identities were not known.

A witness, Charles H. Munnell, watched the scene in horror from his window some distance away.

Munnell said he first noticed the boys, about 12 years old, collecting trash papers and twisting them into tight rolls. Waist-high weeds prevented him from seeing Fuller in the empty lot.

Then the boys lit several of the forches together, they tossed the flaming paper onto Fuller.

"I thought they were burning rubbish," Munnell said. "Until I saw a man leap up and wildly try to beat the flames from his clothing."

Fuller awoke drowsily, then struggled to full consciousness as the flames licked at his shabby clothes around his arms and across his chest. Suddenly he leaped to his feet and beat frantically at his burning clothing.

The boys made no move to help him. They danced about, laughing and slapping their thighs, Munnell said.

The boys ran away when they saw Munnell running across the field, to Fuller's aid.

Fuller had a long record with police as an alcoholic.

Authorities believed that he had been drinking yesterday and had fallen in the sun-swept field to sleep off the effects. Otherwise they said, he probably could have awakened in time to escape serious injury.

Petrillo Has Plan to End Recording Ban

New York, Sept. 16.—(AP)—James C. Petrillo has submitted a formal proposal for ending the nine-month recording ban for his American Federation of Musicians. It was accepted today.

It puts into writing a suggestion made earlier by Petrillo to recording and transcription companies to allow to permit the union to continue to receive royalties on recordings without violating the Taft-Hartley Act.

The plan went into effect Dec. 31 when the old contract between the union and industry expired and the Taft-Hartley law prohibited a new one with the same royalty provision.

The old contract gave the union royalties of one-half to five cents.

Hopes Bright to Avert Phone Strike

By The Associated Press
Hope appeared brighter today of averting a threatened nationwide strike by some 25,000 CIO telephone equipment workers.

The strike deadline is 5 a. m. (EST) Friday but a federal mediator said after all-night negotiations in New York he was "very optimistic" about a settlement of the wage dispute.

Representatives of the CIO Association of Communication Equipment Workers and the Western Electric Company planned to resume sessions this afternoon.

"The picture looks very bright," said Thomas B. Stuetzel, federal mediator.

The outlook was termed "encouraging" by Henry L. Mayer, union attorney who is participating in the wage negotiations.

The union whose members install and maintain central-office telephone equipment in 43 states and the District of Columbia, called the strike in support of a 31 cents an hour across-the-board wage increase. Later it was reported to have cut its demand to 11 to 16 cents an hour. Current wages average $1.15 an hour.

In one of the nation's major strikes, the two-week-old work stoppage by CIO longshoremen—the army prepared to use troops, if necessary to handle military cargo at strike-bound West Coast ports.

The troops will be used if enough civilian stevedores do not sign up, said Secretary of the Army Royal in Washington. The army was charged with "strike-breaking" by Harry Bridges, CIO union leader.

The longshoremen's union is boycotting the army's invitation to load army supplies.

CIO pickets were in front of the army employment office at San Francisco and Seattle. Chief issues in the wage war are wages and a union-controlled hiring hall.

In the CIO oil refinery workers' union strike on the Pacific Coast, negotiations were resumed in San Francisco between the union and one of the six major, struck companies.

Wage negotiations between the union and the other companies have been temporarily recessed at the union's request.

Hugh E. Sheridan, a special mediator continuing efforts to settle the 16-day trucking strike in New York City by AFL teamsters. After meeting with the city's three local AFL teams, he said he was "not far from settling the strike."

Sheridan said prospects were "not bright" for settling the strike in New York City by AFL teamsters. After meeting with the city's three local AFL teams, he said he was "not far from settling the strike."

This Type of School Would Probably Cost Taxpayers More Than They Could Stand

By HAL BOYLE
New York.—(AP)—If I had a son, I'd like him to go to a school that doesn't exist.

It is the school I wish I could have gone to when I was a child. I am afraid this school would cost the taxpayers a terrible amount of money. But if there were such a school, I think it would be worth the money. They would help make the world a better place to be in. And the only way that can be done is to grow up better people.

Perhaps in that way they could begin to get every five or ten per cent. Their job would be to try to create in the schoolroom the friendly, cooperative atmosphere that is found in the highest type American home.

The object of this dream school wouldn't be to prepare the pupil for a job. It would be to prepare him for a happy life with his fellow men. There are plenty of good technical schools he could go to learn how to earn a living.

My school would be coeducational. It would have a dormitory, and once a week the pupils would sleep there. They could stay up late, too, and tell stories and play games.

From kindergarten on they would be taught that the finest career possible is matrimony. They would be discouraged from the idea that marriage is only a sissy thing for women and children.

I would do this by borrowing an orphan infant—mothers often won't lend their babies for school experiments—and let the child, born of both sexes, play together at diapering, feeding and bathing the child. I would keep the orphan around until he was old enough for school, too, so the older children would remember having helped him and look on him as a younger brother.

At my school there would be the triple goal of educating heart, head and hand. The key word would be "co-operation."

The children, boys as well as girls, would cook their meals in the school kitchen. The different classrooms would take turns doing the cooking, dishwashing and waiting on tables. There would be no tipping the waiters (either).

Parades to Start Activities Each Day During Third District Livestock Show

Parades and more parades will start each day of the Third District Livestock Show which opens Monday, September 20 and continues through Saturday, September 25. All parades start at 10 a.m.

Monday, the industrial parade will be headed by Governor-Elect Sid McMath. It will feature many farm implements, latest model automobiles and most local industries will enter floats.

The main parade of the week is scheduled for Tuesday and will feature decorated floats and cars competing for hundreds of dollars in cash prizes. Winners will be announced at Fair Park.

On Wednesday at 10 a.m. a military parade will be held. It will feature a 100-piece band, color guard and veterans of all wars.

Thursday will be the parade of horses with cash prizes going to the best parade horse, the largest horse, smallest horse and the most beautiful horse.

Friday the school students of the section will take over. They will parade downtown by the thousands and will be admitted free to Fair Park.

Saturday, the final day, will bring perhaps the most colorful parade of all when the strikers from over Arkansas in full uniform march through the streets accompanied by their large band.

CIO Leader Denies Reds Rule Union

Washington, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Ben Gold, president of the CIO for American Leather Workers' union, said today his union is not dominated by the Communist party.

Gold, himself a member of the Communist party's national executive committee, told a House labor subcommittee.

"The Communist party doesn't dominate and my union is not dominated by any party," he said.

Further, Gold said, "nobody in our union would agitate such a 'Red' strike as aiming at overthrow of the United States government by force."

As for himself, Gold said "I am opposed to the use of force to overthrow a democratically-elected government."

He was on the witness stand for a stormy hour of testimony before the hearing recessed for lunch. He followed Sam Mencher, a vice-president of the union, who was dismissed from the stand after refusing to say whether he is a Communist.

Gold made a lengthy general statement replying to accusations by earlier witnesses representing employers in the fur industry. The

Romania Ousts 4 Members of U. S. Legation

Washington, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The State department disclosed today that four members of the American legation staff in Bucharest, Romania, have been recalled on the demand of the Romanian government.

Romania had accused the four of taking photographs in a forbidden zone.

The United States rejected the accusation and declared the Romanian government's complaints "do not conform to the facts."

This assertion was made in a note which was delivered by Minister Rudolf E. Schoenfeld to the Romanian foreign ministry yesterday.

The note, released by the State department today, accused Romanian police in the city of Giurgiu of having detained the two men and two women clerks of the legation staff for 17 hours incommunicado after the alleged photographing occurred.

It charged that "for 16 hours no member of the group was allowed food or water."

Against this "inexcusable action of the Romanian authorities," Schoenfeld lodged what his own note called an energetic protest.

The four members of the legation staff involved in the incident were named in the note as Wayne Fisher, third secretary and vice consul, of Glidden, Iowa; Paul Green, an attaché, of Newark, Ohio; Miss Ruth Virginia Gorr, clerk, of San Francisco; and Miss Peggy Maggard, a clerk, of Kansas City, Mo.

Planned Strike Not Against Phone Co.

day issued the following statement concerning a strike scheduled against the Western Electric Co.:

The Western Electric Installers Union (affiliated with T.W.O.C., C.I.O.) has called a strike against the Western Electric Company to begin at 6 a.m. Friday, September 17. This strike does not involve the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

If the strike begins as scheduled, it may be that picket lines will be established around some Telephone Company buildings and other work locations of telephone employees. Picketing of such lines by Telephone Company employees will cause difficulty in furnishing telephone service.

No strike has been called against the Telephone Company by the C.W.A., Division No. 20, the union representing telephone employees and the Telephone Company are in full force and effect. You Will Be Expected to Report For Your Work Assignments As Usual. Negotiations for amendment and modifications of wage and other provisions of existing contracts between the Union (C.W.A., Division No. 20) and the Telephone Company are scheduled to be resumed in St. Louis on Thursday, September 16."

As soon as practicable after the application of the claimant reaches the Central Office in Little Rock the employer or employers, against whose contributions account or accounts benefit payments would be charged, are notified by Form RSD-AP-550. Such employers are instructed to reply immediately to the Local Office if they know of any valid reason why the person filing the claim should not be paid. These employers also have the right and privilege of protest and appeal.

It is obvious that these procedures are sound because the claim is first filed in the local office and the notice of such should go to the last employer.

All accounting records are maintained by and in the state office and therefore employers whose accounts are affected by benefit payments are necessarily notified by that office. Maintaining a separate accounting department in each local office besides being highly impractical, would be prohibitive due to excessive costs to the tax payers.

These facts regarding the procedure of the agency make it clear that the Employment Security Division has and does furnish employers with pertinent information relative to their accounts and tax rates.

For some time the Arkansas agency has been working to simplify and expedite this and other procedures. The Division's recommendations have been submitted to the regional office of the Federal Security Agency and are now being considered. If these recommendations are approved these simplified and expeditious procedures will be established.

Armitage, Brannan to Attend Meet of Stock Districts

Charles A. Armitage and A. D. Brannan will go to Little Rock tomorrow to represent the Third Livestock Show District at a meeting of the four district from over the state.

Purpose of the conference is to coordinate activities of the four district for the next two years.

Rib Injury Not to Keep Scott From Starting
Payetteville, Sept. 16.—(AP)—University of Arkansas football Coach John Barnhill is blue today.

As the University of Arkansas Razorbacks prepare for their season opener with Arkansas, Tex., Christian College at Little Rock Saturday, the Porker mentor is a bit worried about the crop of ribs he has sown.

Behind those with bruises, End Cox has a badly twisted knee and may not see action Saturday. Blocking Back Alvin Duke definitely is out with a dislocated arm.

The injury isn't black, however. Barnhill put his charges through their toughest drill to date yesterday. The verdict is that the team is sharp.

But the defensive team was a little weak against the freshman football team, except on the goal line.

Tailback Barry Rogers and Wingback Ross Pritchard looked especially good on running plays. Barnhill's ace, a sophomore named Clyde Scott, is to start Saturday. He was a cracked rib, the coach announced in naming the 6-3 man. The verdict is that the team is sharp.

Employment Office Denies Records Withheld

The Arkansas Employment Security Division today issued a statement giving its version of a controversy regarding payment records on unemployment benefits and denying a statement published yesterday from Jack Williamson, agent for industries seeking the information.

The local office contends its records are available not only at the state office, Teddy Jones, local employment office manager, gave out the following version:

The Employment Security Division has definitely made no reversal or alteration of its interpretation of the Employment Security Law or departed from the procedure established for its administration.

Futility of Appeasing Hitler Was Based on a Fact That Was Not Widely Known

By DeWITT MacKENIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The following is the second of four articles on the anniversary of British Prime Minister Chamberlain's world-rocking attempt to appease Hitler. As eye-witnessed by the writer.

Medical Tests Prove Grand Relief For Tired, Letdown Feeling

Yes, this is good news for suffering folks who want to regain energy. Better days will be yours, too. So why wait when there is no need to continually feel miserable when you should really enjoy life again.

An appetizing portion of SSS Tonic before meals does wonders for the blood. This famous medicine gets at the seat of the trouble, in nutritional anemia, by building back the blood strength. Thus your blood stream is better able to release energy and freshness to every muscle, nerve, cell. Soon you can feel the difference in the way you feel and look! SSS Tonic has helped hundreds of thousands of people, without any organic trouble or focal infection, to really feel better, more vigorous, better able to enjoy living.

Take Only The Best

The futility of British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's efforts at appeasing Adolf Hitler and so achieving "peace in our time" pivoted on a fact which wasn't realized even by German officialdom at the beginning of the negotiations at Berchtesgaden over the Czechoslovakian demands on Czechoslovakia.

This was that Hitler already had evil designs for large-scale conquest, far exceeding anything which little Czechoslovakia afforded. It was only recently that this was made known to me by Dr. Erich Kordt who at the time of the negotiations was chief of the German foreign office secretariat and now is "professor" in the University of Munich.

During a chat at AP headquarters in New York Dr. Kordt told me it was Hitler's brutal dealing with Chamberlain at Godesberg at the second conference which tipped the Nazi chief's hand to his executives. At that moment the Fuehrer wanted not a settlement but a "little war" to enhance his prestige, and so planned an assault on Czechoslovakia. The "big war" would come later.

The upshot of the historic parley at Berchtesgaden had been that the prime minister took back to England Hitler's daring and savage demand that he be allowed annex the Czechoslovakian Sudetenland inhabited by Germans. There followed the momentous meeting between Chamberlain and French Premier Edouard Daladier in London on September 19 — momentous because the trend of world destiny rested in the hands of two men. Wishfully thinking they clung to the idea of placating Hitler.

Their decision apparently was to drop all resistance to part, or all, of the dictator's demands on Czechoslovakia. They hoped to get in return a general European settlement. In any event, the two great European democracies finally decided, after much heart-searching, against fighting to preserve the unity of Czechoslovakia; as then constituted. The little new republic was to be sold down the river in the supposed interest of peace.

On September 21 the Czechoslovak government, feeling deserted and alone, announced acceptance of the Anglo-French plans for meeting Hitler's demands. Thousands of Czechoslovakians gathered in the streets of their capital and with tears streaming down their faces listened to the government's broadcast telling that the nation had lost its lone fight — that the territorial sacrifice was the price of peace in Europe.

Thus it came about that September 22 Chamberlain flew to Godesberg on the Rhine to try to buy European peace at Czechoslovakia's expense. A week earlier when he left for Berchtesgaden great throngs had cheered him as the emissary of peace. Setting out for Godesberg he was booed by one person in the crowd gathered in front of his Downing street residence. Several clapped hands, but nobody cheered.

I shall never forget the reception staged for Chamberlain by Hitler at the Godesberg airport. The dictator turned out a detachment of his famous death's head guardsmen — a grim looking lot in their black uniforms and fear-som insignia. As the prime minister descended from the plane the guards goosestepped towards him, their heavy, hobbled boots crashing on the concrete runway with the inevitability of armed might.

It was truly a chilling exhibition and I have no doubt that Hitler deliberately arranged this display of brute force to frighten Chamberlain. I've often thought that probably the Fuehrer succeeded.

The battle between Hitler and Chamberlain was bitter, and the Nazi chief all but spat in the prime minister's face.

The conference was faced with the fact that while Czechoslovakia had bowed to the Anglo-French plan, she had sworn to resist armed invasion and had mobilized her troops. Hitler's final, fierce word demanded: (1) Cancellation of the Czechoslovak mobilization order, and (2) permission for German troops or the Sudeten Free Corps to march into the border

Land already sacrificed to the Reich by the Anglo-French plan. The conference was close to a rupture when a harassed Chamberlain finally salvaged it with a midnight promise to put new pressure on Prague to meet Hitler's demands. The prime minister demanded no mass violence against Czechoslovakia. So the weary and haggard old man returned to his mountain-top hotel at end of this siege he had this tiny but significant message for the press: "I cannot say it is hopeless."

With that Chamberlain went home to London to urge Prague to accept and so keep Europe's great armies from being unleashed. Hitler made it known that he would brook no delay. He demanded occupation of Sudetenland by October 1.

As the Godesberg conference wound up, guerrilla warfare was sweeping through Sudetenland.

Sweden's Socialist Rule at Stake

Stockholm, Sept. 16 —(AP)—Sweden's 16 years of Socialist rule is at stake in general elections next Sunday.

Conservatives, liberals and agrarians have joined forces to wrest power from the Social Democratic labor party which has governed the country since 1932.

Campaigning has been intense, and recent public opinion polls in-dicte that under the concerted onslaught the social Democrats may fail to secure a majority in the lower chamber of the Swedish parliament.

The opposition has played its heaviest guns on domestic issues, charging the Socialists with "economic misrule, causing the worst foreign currency crisis in Swedish history."

Under the leadership of the late premier, Per Albin Hansson, Social Democrats in the last few general elections have polled roughly three times more votes than any other Swedish party.

Today they are fighting under a new leader, 47-year-old Tage Erlander, who took over as premier and recent public opinion polls in-

German Youths Stone Police in Red Sector

Berlin, Sept. 16 — (AP) — Some 150 German youths stoned three policemen in the Russian sector of Berlin today the Soviet-controlled press reported.

This was the third stoning of Eastern sector police in recent weeks. The first two drew gunfire from the police and resulted in the death of one Berliner and the wounding of more than 20 others.

The Communist police report said the three policemen were returning home from duty when a swarm of youngsters near a "black market center" set upon them and showered them with rocks from nearby rubble heaps.

Hilary does return to England and to Nana Farthing—after long and hard fighting. When he realizes she is the girl he would have loved if he had lived, Hilary's room is locked after George, his brother, brings word of his death. Sabrina broods until Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, unlocks the room again for her. Sabrina knows then that Hilary has come home.

Typhoon Hits Wide Section Near Tokyo

Tokyo, Sept. 16 — (AP) — Ten central (Honshu) prefectures were lashed by a typhoon tonight as winds up to 60 miles an hour zipped east of metropolitan Tokyo. At least two were dead, three injured and 23 missing in the 10 prefectures, early reports indicated.

Torrential rains deluged sections north and west of Tokyo sending rivers on rampages. Thousands of Japanese fled as rivers threatened to burst their banks.

Fears were expressed for the ripening rice crops.

Residents of Shimizu, 30 miles south of here, evinced with terror as four storm loosened Japanese vessels were tossed about the harbor where the American freighter, Governor Bibbs, was trapped as it loaded explosive ammonium nitrate, the type of cargo that wrecked Texas City last year.

The center of the storm passed west of the city at 8:30 p. m. (6:30 a. m. CST).

Haneda Airport reported only slight damage from the high winds. Four American B-29s landed at Misawa Airport during the storm.

Government trains which had been halted, resumed their schedules. There were frequent power interruptions during the night.

The Tone river and its tributaries were causing the most concern north of Tokyo.

The U. S. Army first cavalry division reported almost all of the residents of Ota, Ojima, Kozumi and Kumagaya evacuated their homes as the river rose 14 feet. The river was still within its banks but was rising rapidly.

The center of the typhoon is expected to pass 35 miles east of Tokyo at 9 p. m. (7 a. m. CST). Winds of at least 60 miles an hour are expected.

In the Kanto plains, scene of last year's great flood, which claimed 829 lives, river watches stood by levees. Some levees already had broken. A landslide at Mt. Fuji crushed an inn but there had been no report of loss of life.

Sections of the lowlands were under water late today from the drenching rains.

Business houses in Tokyo's famed Ginza dismissed their employees early to permit them to reach their homes ahead of the storm.

The United States Army's First Cavalry Division evacuated 13 American families from the Tone river danger area at Hachinon late today.

By making a quick dash across the state line, Hitchcock and his wife escaped the three-day Florida waiting period and other legal barriers.

The scene of the polo-playing family still faced a possible penalty charge in Florida, however. His divorce from his second wife, Marie Graham, was not yet final only Tuesday and he allegedly stated that he was already divorced when he obtained a Florida marriage license on Aug. 21.

The marriage was delayed when the divorce failed to come through on schedule. Close friends of the couple said they had planned a South American honeymoon, but Pan American Airlines in Miami said Hitchcock had cancelled reservations to Rio De Janeiro several days ago.

subcommittee, headed by Rep. Max Schwabe (R-Mo.) is investigating complaints that Communists dominate the fur workers' union.

He called his organization "a Democratic progressive union." He denied it is barring war veterans from jobs in the fur industry.

He offered the committee a telegram saying 67 veterans who are union members have recommended prosecution for perjury of management witnesses who have claimed veterans were denied permission to work while displaced persons from Europe given jobs promptly.

Cinderella Bride Quietly Married

Folkston, Ga., Sept. 16. — (UP) — Some 30 top-draw society guests cooled their heels in Daytona Beach, Fla., today while wealthy Francis Hitchcock and his Cinderella bride honeymooned at an undisclosed spot after slipping away for a quick wedding here last night.

The ceremony, performed in less than two minutes by a county judge in his rambling, column-fronted home on the edge of Okefenokee Swamp, was strictly informal.

The bride, the former Stephanie Salje, wore slacks and a flowered blouse. Hitchcock, a 29-year-old sportsman, was dressed in an open blue sports shirt and tan slacks, with no coat or tie.

Judge A. S. McQueen, who officiated, said the couple were "very dignified."

Society guests, who had waited since last weekend to see the wealthy socialite take the 23-year-old coal miner's daughter from Pennsylvania as his third wife, missed the actual ceremony.

But they weren't to be entirely disappointed. A swart Daytime Beach caterer worked all night preparing a lavish reception which he said was scheduled for 1 p. m. today.

The couple kept the reception plans as much a mystery as they did the wedding plans. Even the caterer didn't know where the wedding celebration was to be held.

He said his orders were to have everything ready and packed in his trucks by 11 o'clock this morning, when he would get the word on where to go.

The wedding cake was to be topped with a miniature one-room room cottage, complete with doors, windows and gabled roof, constructed of toast.

Friends of the couple believed the reception would take place in "White Castle," the nearby ocean front home of Col. Arch Wall, where the wedding was to have been performed according to original plan.

Wall, a close friend of Hitchcock, drove the couple here for the ceremony at 9 a. m. yesterday, accompanied by two photographers.

Judge McQueen, who is ordinary of Charlton county issued the couple a Georgia marriage license and married them on the spot, said the photographers "took a lot of pictures before, during and after the ceremony."

"They even took a picture of my house as they drove away," he said.

By making a quick dash across the state line, Hitchcock and his wife escaped the three-day Florida waiting period and other legal barriers.

The scene of the polo-playing family still faced a possible penalty charge in Florida, however. His divorce from his second wife, Marie Graham, was not yet final only Tuesday and he allegedly stated that he was already divorced when he obtained a Florida marriage license on Aug. 21.

The marriage was delayed when the divorce failed to come through on schedule. Close friends of the couple said they had planned a South American honeymoon, but Pan American Airlines in Miami said Hitchcock had cancelled reservations to Rio De Janeiro several days ago.

He offered the committee a telegram saying 67 veterans who are union members have recommended prosecution for perjury of management witnesses who have claimed veterans were denied permission to work while displaced persons from Europe given jobs promptly.

Mencher is the second vice-president of the union to refuse to answer such a question on grounds it violated his constitutional right to free assembly and that an answer might incriminate him. Sam Burt had declined to answer on those grounds yesterday.

Mencher, a fur worker since 1911 was promptly dismissed from the witness stand by Chairman Max Schwabe (R-Mo.) of a House labor subcommittee. The committee is investigating complaints of Communist infiltration of the union.

The witness testified he has been chairman of the furriers' joint council since 1937. Since he is a shoe worker, he said, most of the council's business is conducted by Irving Putash, who is manager.

John Graham, committee counsel, asked Mencher whether he is a member of the International Furworkers' union. Mencher objected to the question, saying the order is a fraternal organization. He admitted, however, that he is a member of the order and has an insurance policy in it.

Graham told the committee the order has been listed by Attorney General Clark as a subversive organization.

DOROTHY DIX Building a Marriage

A starchy-eyed young girl, who is a true and tried remedy for promoting domestic peace and happiness that the average husband and wife refuse even to test.

It is literally true that no man and woman know what they are getting when they get married. Every husband and wife has peculiarities of temperament, fancy little ways, foolish prejudices, different points of view that mark the crisis in every marriage and determines whether the husband and wife will live together in harmony or scrap.

For this dream of a perfect mating that all young couples in love cherish is mere wishful thinking with which they delude themselves. It is an utter impossibility for any two people of different sexes, with a different heredity, with a different upbringing, with different tastes and habits ever to think exactly alike or have just the same desires. Nor is it desirable that they should be replicas of each other. Certainly nothing would be more boring than to have to spend a lifetime with a person who never had an original idea.

So the lovers who marry on the theory that they were made for each other had as well scrap that fond belief. There is nothing to it but disappointment. If marriages are made in Heaven, the architect who contrives them doesn't make two souls with but a single thought. To give each other body plenty of thoughts that clash mostly.

So the secret of how to be happy though married is not to waste your time and energy in trying to find a mate who's been tailored especially to your fancy, or to court sorrow by attempting to make over your husband or wife into a duplicate of yourself. Neither one can be done. Their only result is to precipitate a perpetual domestic brawl and to pave the way to the divorce court.

The thing that marriage calls for more than all the virtues is adjustment. It is for a married couple to study each other's peculiarities and not try to reform them, but to adapt themselves to them. That is the one and only way of eliminating each record sold. The union had sole control of the money, which it spent on employing jobless, appointment of a trustee for the royalties and designation of a depository. The trustee would not be a member of the union, but could spend the funds only for non-profit concerts in concert halls and areas designated by the union, and only on approval of the union.

The industry earlier submitted its own plan calling for payments into a fund somewhat similar to the United Mine Workers welfare fund administered by a board having representatives of the union, industry and the public.

Neither the union nor industry officials would comment on the Petrillo proposal. However, doubt as to its legality under the Taft-Hartley law was expressed in industry legal circles.

It was emphasized that Petrillo's move was merely one in a series of attempts to reach a basis for the start of formal negotiations toward a solution. No future meetings between the union and the industry have been definitely scheduled, and the consensus was that no early end of the recording ban is in sight.

Rattlesnakes are the most highly developed of the venomous snakes.

Reptiles (D-Texas) asked Mencher whether Communists have taken control of the union.

"The workers have taken control. I don't know whether you could call them right or left," Mencher replied.

When asked whether he is a Communist, Mencher gave a prepared statement giving reasons for his refusal to answer. When Mencher declined to answer the question, he was dismissed from the witness stand.

Wallace Party Generally Favors GOP

By LYLE C. WILSON
Washington, Sept. 15 — (AP) — Henry A. Wallace has planted most of his congressional candidates where they can help defeat New Dealers and liberals.

is close the Republicans probably will have to think Wallace for helping them keep control of the Senate. If Republicans increase their house holdings, they probably will owe some of those gains to Wallace, too.

A United Press survey reveals third party congressional candidates generally expected to split the Democratic-led vote. This is regarded as a Communist party line maneuver designed to obtain a conservative administration in Washington. The Communist line is that the sooner and further this government goes to the right, the sooner will come the revolution to supplant it with a Communist state. Whether his Communist associates explained their reasoning to Wallace is not known.

General President Emil Rieve of the Textile Workers of America (CIO) first rang the alarm bell about third party congressional coming.

"The third party headed by Wallace is trying hard to bring about a reactionary victory in the November elections," said Rieve in a campaign pamphlet. Rieve cited 2 states in which the general thrust of third party congressional efforts was directed against New Dealers or progressive Republicans. A United Press survey turned up Wallace congressional candidates in five additional states. There probably will be more Wallaces running for Congress within a fortnight or so.

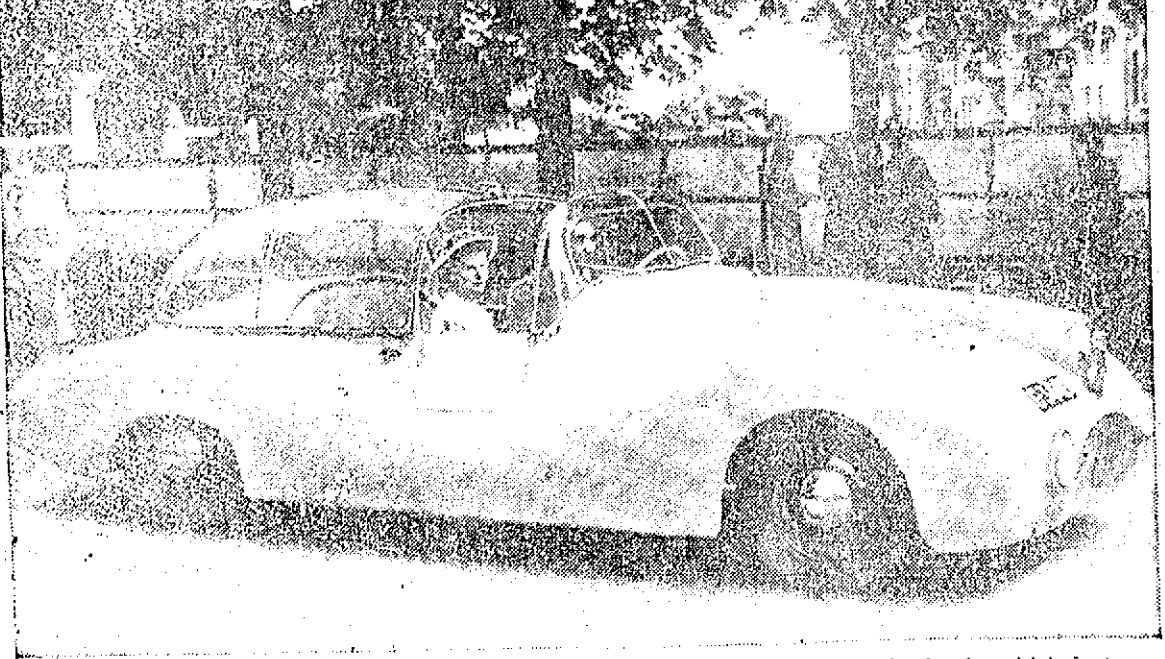

The states in which there are or soon will be Wallace candidates for Congress are: Minnesota, New York, Missouri, Illinois (Cook county only), Iowa, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Virginia, Oregon, Wisconsin, West Virginia, California, Indiana, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Connecticut.

There are at least 54 third party candidates for the House among these states and five for the Senate. The Republicans elected 235 representatives two years ago to 187 for the Democrats. Republican control of the House is relatively safe. Third party efforts are more likely than not to help increase the Republican margin of control in the next Congress.

In the Senate the score is Republicans 51, Democrats 45. Third party congressional candidates in Minnesota and Iowa will add Republicans in their campaign to keep or increase their Senate majority. The third party senatorial candidate has not yet been entered in Minnesota but the move for him is due this week.

Eskimo Maids Wear Nylons Nowadays

Portland, Ore., Sept. 15 — (UP) — Three Eskimo maidens, who long ago abandoned seal-skin moccasins in favor of high-heeled shoes, were ready to emplane today for Texas, where they will help a Fort Worth oil millionaire win a $25,000 bet.

The girls arrived from the Arctic circle by way of Seattle aboard a two-engine private plane piloted by Lew Leach, Jr., of Dallas.

Leach is pilot and general handler for L. L. Hogue, Fort Worth oilman who bet his friends he could get three Eskimo girls and deliver them in Texas before midnight of Sept. 15.

The girls are Lena DeWich, 22, of Kivilua, Alaska; Molly Blanche, 25, of Chukotka, Alaska; and Alice Walker, 28, of Wainwright, Alaska. Their escorts are Leroy Gray, 30, of Kotzebue, Alaska.

They wore spike pumps, nylon stockings, wool coats, white gloves and glasses.

The Eskimo maidens, Leach said, were signed up for the trip to non-Arctic Texas with the aid of Seattle newsmen.

The enterprise began when Hogue went to Kailash, Mont., a few days ago for a brief vacation. While he was there, Hogue phoned friends in Dallas and Fort Worth and asked what souvenirs of his trip they wanted.

The Texans asked for Eskimos. After the deadline he made the bet, Leach got his flying orders and went to work.

Leach first flew to Alaska but found the Eskimos there were wards of the federal government and could not be carried over the country by betting purposes, even with chaperones. Then Leach was advised to try Portland, which was represented as full of Eskimos. But the Portland Eskimos turned out to be Indians.

After Portland, Leach tried Seattle and signed up the Eskimos there. They will be paid $100 a day and expenses.

Here and There in Arkansas

Hot Springs, Sept. 14 — (AP) — Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana is visiting in Hot Springs.

The governor, his wife and seven companions arrived here Saturday (implied by anyone except hotel officials).

Long could not be reached immediately and it has not been determined how long he will remain here.

Little Rock, Sept. 14 — (AP) — The Arkansas Resources and Development Commission today predicted a heavy tourist trade for the state this fall.

The commission has received 3,722 requests for tourist information during the months of June, July and August this year. In the same period last year only 704 requests were received.

There were 12,004 inquiries to the commission the first eight months of 1948, the publicity division reported. During this period last year there were only 6,220 requests.

The requests came from 46 states and 40 foreign countries.

Little Rock, Sept. 14 — (AP) — Twelve new fire towers will be installed in Arkansas forest lands, Hendrix Lackey, director of the Arkansas Resources and Development commission, said. The new towers, ordered by the forestry division, will be placed in North Arkansas area.

Fayetteville, Sept. 14 — (AP) — Two new departments have been added to the University of Arkansas College for Engineering.

President Lewis Webster Jones yesterday announced appointment of Horace W. Risteen, professor of mechanical engineering, to head the new department of industrial engineering.

Robert C. Wray, will be in charge of the department of mechanics.

Women to Discuss Poll Tax Drive This Fall

Little Rock, Sept. 15 — (AP) — Representatives of women's organizations in the state will meet with officials of the young Democratic club of Arkansas here tonight to discuss a fall poll tax drive.

Dave Garrison, executive director of the YWCA, said the meeting was called to seek endorsement of the women's group of the Young Democrats' program to increase the state's voting strength.

The campaign to encourage payment of poll taxes will begin on a state-wide basis Sept. 13.

Record Cotton Crop to Bring Labor Problem

By BOB BROWN
Little Rock, Sept. 15 — (UP) — A record breaking cotton crop this fall will make the Arkansas planters' labor problem more serious than ever before, labor experts agreed here today.

D. O. Rushing, regional farm labor expert with the employment security division of the state labor department, declared that "the picking problem is pretty serious."

Rushing declined to say that a shortage of pickers already exists but did say that "we are making every effort to bring in workers from other sections of Arkansas and from out of state."

Meanwhile the weekly crop bulletin reported that cotton picking is well started over the Southern half of Arkansas and is getting under way elsewhere. Cool weather, the bulletin said, is retarding opening in Mississippi county but hot sun this week is making the crop earlier than ever.

It estimated that the planters did not have all of the pickers they wanted last year.

"And he said, 'With a crop estimated at 700,000 bales above last year's total you can draw your own conclusion as to the labor supply.'"

Balkan Nations Near Breaking Point

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Sept. 15 — (AP) — Yugoslav Communists indicated today their relations with neighboring Romania and Hungary are near the breaking point.

They declared that friendship and alliance with these countries could not exist under the pressure, slander and calls to revolt being conducted against Marshal Tito's Communist government.

The crumbling relations were made more apparent in an editorial today in Borba, the Communist party newspaper.

The editorial charged that the authorities in Romania and Hungary are evading responsibility for worsening relations between "friendly Democratic (Communist) countries."

Borba said a "slandering" anti-Tito campaign had made the terms of friendship sound "pharisaic and ridiculous."

The commentary strongly indicated that treaties of friendship, cooperation and mutual aid between Yugoslavia and her neighbors.

Arkansas Power, Light Has Two New Directors

Little Rock, Sept. 15 — (AP) — Arkansas Power and Light Company has two new directors.

J. C. Hardin, Grady, Ark., former Arkansas revenue commissioner, and Gordon E. Young, Pine Bluff attorney, were named to the posts by A. P. M. and L. M. stockholders at a meeting here yesterday.

They fill vacancies caused by the deaths of the late Roy L. Thompson and J. L. Longino, Pine Bluff.

All board officers were reelected. Dividends of $1.75 per share on $7 preferred stock and $1.50 per share on $6 preferred stock were voted by the directors. Dividends are payable Oct. 1.

They also voted to pay $100,000 to the North and East might as well be torn up.

These treaties, said the editorial, have been "flagrantly violated."

Meanwhile, a "support Tito" campaign is being kept at the highest possible pitch in Yugoslavia. Marshal Tito has appeared in public all along the Dalmatian coast and on several of the Yugoslav islands in the Adriatic, visiting docks, factories and workers' homes.

Voters in 7 States Pick Candidates

By The Associated Press
Voters in seven states had their candidates picked today for political offices ranging from governor to senator down to minor town positions.

These were the major results in yesterday's primaries:

Senator Joseph Ball won Republican nomination in Minnesota, while Elmer Robert Humphreys of Alameda won the Democratic nomination.

Another incumbent, Senator Ed. Johnston of Colorado, rolled up a heavy victory margin in his own Democratic primary.

New labor support probably will help Republican Will F. Nicholson, political newcomer who held a position held over former Gov. John C. Vinson.

Republican Senator Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts and Styles Bridges of New Hampshire were reelected. Saltonstall will get his November opposition from John F. Fitzgerald, while Alfred E. Brown will square off against Bridges.

John Nicholson, seasonal candidate, GOP Senator, Homer F. Peterson and former Democratic Rep. Frank Cook, also in heavy opposition within their own party.

Another seasonal candidate, GOP Senator, Homer F. Peterson and former Democratic Rep. Frank Cook, also in heavy opposition within their own party.

Minnesota — Four of the eight GOP congressional and state legislative candidates were reelected. The four Republicans are fighting to hold their seats all over the state, although Rep. Joseph Cox and Sen. Elmer Robert Humphreys had a stiff battle on his seat. Cox had a narrow margin in his district, but Humphreys is the district's incumbent and will be reelected.

Michigan — In an important congressional contest, Republican Rep. Bartel J. Jonckheere was reelected in his bid for another term by political newcomer Gerald R. Ford, Jr., who had accused Jonckheere of pre-World War II activities.

Vermont — Rep. Charles A. Phelps was reelected by the Republican Party to serve an eighth term. The Democratic Party held the state's congressional seat in 1946.

Utah — Republican Rep. Hiram Hatch was reelected to a fourth term. The Democratic Party held the state's congressional seat in 1946.

Colorado — Democrat Lee Kniss, who is the incumbent, and Republican David A. Hannell were reelected.

This is the way various contests for House seats looked as returns from yesterday's primaries rolled in.

Cotton Pickers Shipped Out by Employment Office

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 15 — (AP) — Cotton-picking time has arrived in the Mid-South.

The Memphis office of the U. S. employment service said it sent out nearly 5,000 cotton pickers to Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee fields this morning.

The office said it has orders for 12,000 pickers daily when the season reaches its peak.

Women to Discuss Poll Tax Drive This Fall

Little Rock, Sept. 15 — (AP) — Representatives of women's organizations in the state will meet with officials of the young Democratic club of Arkansas here tonight to discuss a fall poll tax drive.

Dave Garrison, executive director of the YWCA, said the meeting was called to seek endorsement of the women's group of the Young Democrats' program to increase the state's voting strength.

The campaign to encourage payment of poll taxes will begin on a state-wide basis Sept. 13.

McClellan Disputes Contention by Commerce Secretary

Washington, Sept. 15 — (AP) — An Arkansas senator took issue today with Secretary of Commerce Sawyer over who is responsible for export irregularities now being investigated in Congress.

Sawyer blamed Congress a few days ago, saying that the Commerce department's office of international trade was kept on "a starvation diet" for nearly two years because of meager appropriations.

That contention was disputed by Senator McClellan (D-Ark), a member of the subcommittee which has been carrying in the investigation.

"Congress can't legislate honesty or efficiency in government agencies regardless of what Secretary Sawyer says," McClellan told a reporter.

The Senate group, headed by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) has been looking into the OIT's handling of export licenses. The senators claim to have turned up evidence of a number of irregularities.

Fair Enough

New York, Sept. 15 — Mournful witnesses testified before committees of the House of Representatives last week regarding the power of the Fur and Leather Workers' union of the CIO to extort from non-Communist workers and from employers, as well, contributions to Communist campaign funds and subscriptions to Communist publications.

This is nothing new but the admission that it is true comes as an important concession from employers in the fur and leather industry. These gentlemen, as a group, were enthusiastic supporters of Franklin D. Roosevelt and no element of our people resented more angrily all evidence that he had created conditions which might force American citizens to finance and otherwise support forces which are hostile to the United States. During part of his reign, the utility of the Russian government to this country was not as frank as it has been since VE day but there was no excuse for any intelligent man to say that the enemy had been abandoned.

Now we are told that the union could read could see "that there was an irreconcilable cause of war between our country and Soviet Russia. All that anyone could possibly offer as an excuse for dreaming of a fatuous faith in Roosevelt. Of course, people have a right to be fools over insipid heroes but some of these idolaters went beyond reasonable lengths. They tried to browbeat Alexander H. Hays, a fur dealer, into signing the Wagner Act, the awful fraud called by the leering name of labor's magna charta, did contain a license for Communism to finance and organize treason and for racketeers to plague labor, and commerce — and that this was being done flagrantly.

To be sure, during most of his reign, Roosevelt callously exploited the emotions of sincere citizens whose relatives in Germany were suffering ghastly persecution, and many of them were engaged in the fur and leather industries. Their judgment was out of focus. To find fault with Roosevelt was to hammer a savior, who could do no wrong, and thus honest persons who had coldly analyzed his misdeeds with courage and patience, a false, and in some cases, financially ruinous propaganda. Communists in their many guises, in New York and Washington joined in this hateful silent boycott and smear. Some cheap and obvious opportunists also hopped in to injure business rivals by accusing the fur of bigotry. John P. Flynn and other glib Americans who were smeared and suffered damage as anti-Semites deserve accolades today.

Long ago, using the Newspaper Guild and its constitution as examples, I demonstrated that the Communist Party had cornered on a small minority of a given Community projects and punish unbearably all loyal citizens who resisted. The guild at that time even had a trap in its constitution which made it impossible for a member to resign except to quit the profession of journalism.

Most of the now familiar parliamentary tricks of the Reds were practiced on us new hands in those early guild meetings. Our high executive officer, a stranger to the real newspaper men and women, was a cloak-and-suit journalist who later popped up as press-agent for Nathan Witt, the early secretary of the National Labor Relations Board. Mr. Witt was unmasked and eliminated long ago, against the resistance of Mr. Roosevelt. And only recently, this time against the resistance of President Truman, he was scooped up among other squirming, slippery life by the dredges of the Thomas committee. Incidentally Eleanor Roosevelt was a member of the guild at the time.

I have proved in a hundred cases that the law openly flouted its own stated purpose of facilitating interstate commerce by abating the power of very bad gangs.

The fact that Americans are forced to support Communist parties and candidates is nothing new. They are forced to support Democratic candidates, too, and some day they might be forced to support Republican candidates. The candidate's political complexion is immaterial except that when he is the candidate of the Communists, such as Henry Wallace and little Marcantonio, the irony is a little more poignant. The wickedness of this law lies in the fact that it was intended to curtail the political vitality of the citizen.

Roosevelt's idolaters would never admit that or even admit that it was important. Now because of the damage done by the Communists, they are beginning to wait that this is all wrong and blame, not Roosevelt, who planned it that way, but the Communists who merely took advantage of Roosevelt's law.

Only a few days ago I further developed the union career of a despicable criminal named Ben Pross. Among other outrageous facts, I showed that for two years running this crook had arranged that a union of wine salesmen, which he controls, should honor him with a testimonial dinner and a gift from the "proceeds." He decides that he deserves the honor and the poor subjects have to buy tickets at $15 each for the regular $2.00 blue plate or hear about it later from Mr. Pross. He can fire them for failure to "honor" him. This is standard practice so familiar that, actually, the public regards it as an inconvenience no more to be cured than bad weather. And this inveterate thief was placed in dictatorial power over 75,000 American citizens without even a pretense of an election.

It is no worse that an American should be forced to give $5 for Henry Wallace's campaign than that he was forced to give $5 for Roosevelt's fund in 1944 when Communist papers threatened to publish the publication of their union which is wholly devoted to glorification of Dan Tobin, the king-dictator of the union. In 1944 the Teamster was a campaign periodical of the Roosevelt party, issued voluntarily at enormous cost and paid for in its own stated purpose of facilitating interstate commerce by abating the power of very bad gangs.

Most Teams in State to See Action Friday

Little Rock, Sept. 16 —(AP)—Arkansas' 1948 high school football season gets into full swing this weekend with virtually all teams seeing action and title play beginning in the Big Six division.

The top attraction tomorrow night will be the Grizzlies of the El Dorado Wildcats against the El Dorado Wildcats in a game which will start championship competition in the Big Six or Triple A division—a new classification created for the state's largest schools.

For the most part, competition this weekend will be of the non-district variety.

The other Big Six elevens will be at home for engagements, with non-division foes. Little Rock will entertain Fordyce, the traveling scribe Joe playing golf at Tain O'Shanter recently. As Carmichael approached Joe, Russell, who which gave Little Rock a scare last week, goes to Van Buren, and Subiaco, last year's runner-up will visit Texarkana.

About half of the teams will be opening their season this weekend. The others got started last week.

The complete schedule "to be played Friday night unless otherwise indicated; (district games designated in parentheses):
Fordyce at Little Rock (Thurs).
Port Smith at El Dorado (AAA).
McGehee at Pine Bluff (Thurs.).
L. R. Catholic at North Little Rock.
Payetteville at Alma.
Beaumont at Springdale.
Harrison at Mountain Home.

Yankees Still Have Chance to Cop Crown

By JOHN GRIFFIN
New York, Sept. 16 —(UP)—With the tense American League pennant chase getting near the payoff, the runner-up New York Yankees got a chance today to get back on even terms with the pace-setting Boston Red Sox.

Apparently whipped for the year when they lost three out of four to Boston a week-and-a-half ago, the Yankees are now in a position where they could gain a tie for first place—if they win a double-header from Detroit and St. Louis beats the Red Sox.

In their attempt for two wins, the Yankees were expected to send right-handers Vic Raschi (18-6) and Frank Shea (9-10) against Detroit, while Boston called on Mel Parnell (13-6) against the Browns.

The Yankees got this second chance, perhaps their last, when the tail-end Chicago White Sox rose up yesterday to down the Red Sox in a wild 17 to 10 game in Chicago. The defeat cut Boston's lead to a game-and-a-half.

The White Sox registered the upset with an incredible 10-run rally in the seventh inning. As Chicago teed off on pitchers Dave Ferriss and Earl Caldwell for six hits and three walks, it was hard to tell which team was battling for the flag and which was hopelessly buried in the cellar. Ted Wright was the star, driving in five of the runs in the rally—four of them on a grand slam homer off Caldwell.

The Yankees were idle yesterday, along with the third-place Cleveland Indians.

Perry Fain's double to score Eddie Joost in the 12th inning gave the Philadelphia A's an 8 to 7 win over the Browns in St. Louis. Brownie Gerry Priddy had sent the game into overtime with a ninth-inning homer.

The Tigers extended Washington's losing streak to 15 games by a 4 to 2 score at Detroit. Rookie Lou Kretlow hurled a nine-inning game, while Mito Caudin was charged with the defeat.

Boston's Braves retained their five-game margin in the National League by downing Chicago, 5 to 2, at Boston. Southpaw Warren Spahn was tagged for nine hits but secured his 14th win. Four Cub errors played a big part in the Braves' scoring.

The Pirates lightened their hold on second place with an 8 to 3 victory over the Giants in New York behind the seventh-pitching of Ernie Bonham. Whitey Lockman and Johnny Mize homered for New York, but the Pirates found Larry Jansen an easy mark and thus ended their three-game losing streak.

The Dodgers split a doubleheader with Cincinnati, losing the first game 3 to 2 as they were held to six hits by Owie Fox and winning the second, 2 to 1, when Preacher Roe stopped the Reds with seven set backs.

The Cardinals gained a third-place tie with Brooklyn by winning a night game from the Phillies, 2 to 0, at Philadelphia. George (Red) Mungler hurled a neat three-hitter to get the win.

Hinton

On Monday afternoon, September 13 Hinton Home Demonstration Club had a very interesting club meeting in the home of Mrs. Henry Black. Mrs. Tommie Gibson acted as president and Miss Vancille Black acted as secretary-treasurer. The devotion was given by the hostess. Prayer was led by Mrs. Adams. We sang our song of the month. Roll called, each one answering with what we, as citizens, owe to our community. Old and new business was discussed. Bills were turned in and accepted from our picnic. Our coupon captain, Mrs. Stella Adams turned in $1.85 to the club. Mrs. Ed Black bought the silver tray and Mrs. Stella Adams bought the wall brush that was given as special prizes from our coupon saving plan. New business, our club decided to share equally with all the other clubs in furnishing our food stand at our County Fair. Our club will have four of our members to represent us and to work at the food stand: Mrs. Tommie Gibson, Mrs. LeRoy Smith, Mrs. Tom Barr and Mrs. Ed Black. We were dismissed by saying our club creed.

Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Vancille Black. Our October meeting will be with Mrs. Tommie Gibson.

4-H Clubs Get Aid From Electric Co.

A $50 check contributed by Southwestern Gas and Electric company to help further the work of the 4-H club organization has been received by the Hempstead county 4-H club group, it was announced by Hershel Sewell of Sweet Home, 4-H council secretary.

This is the second year Southwestern Gas and Electric company has made this contribution. The check was presented to Hempstead county 4-H club council by A. H. Gray, Jr., head of the Rural Development Department.

Speaking for the 900 employees of Southwestern Gas and Electric company, it is a pleasure to help further the work of such an outstanding organization as the 4-H club," Frank M. Wilkes, president, said. "The 4-H club not only provides wholesome entertainment for our farm youth but, and most important, provides a well-rounded educational program to teach better farming methods. The benefits of such a program will be returned to all of us over a period of years through more productive farms and more efficient management of these farms."

"Southwestern, like every other business organization in this area, realizes that the future of the Southwest depends to a large extent upon the continued prosperity of farmers. Our company is always glad to be of help to farm organizations and we will continue to cooperate with groups like the 4-H clubs in every possible way."

Southwestern will make the same $50 contribution to each of the 15 county 4-H club organizations in which the company provides electric service.

Tips to Make Dishwashing Easier

Dishwashing is a household job that frequently falls to children, not because they choose it but because their elders allot it to them. To many youngsters dishwashing is one of their most disliked chores.

Home Demonstration Agent Lorraine Blackwood points out that it need not be a distasteful or uninteresting task for either young or old.

She lists these 10 tips to make dishwashing easier:

1. Scrape and stack dishes at the table and place them on a tray.
2. Use a tray, or utility wagon, to save trips from dining table to kitchen sink.
3. Provide enough counter space (about 36 inches) at right of sink for convenient stacking.
4. Store dishwashing supplies and equipment near the place where they are used.
5. Use plenty of hot, soapy water to remove grease quickly.
6. Work from right to left.
7. Use both hands equally to save time and labor.
8. Use systematic and strength-saving motions to make work easier.
9. Scald and drain rather than dry dishes whenever practical.
10. Store dishes to left of drain counter.

"Just study the job. You will find the easiest ways of clearing the table, scraping, stacking, washing, scalding or drying, and putting away the dishes," says the home demonstration agent.

In their regular Wednesday meeting, Boy Scout troop 65 of Fulton completed plans to render the opening ceremony at the district "court of honor." The court will be held at First Baptist church in Hope tonight (Thursday) at 7:30. The program is designed to be of special interest to scouts, parents and visitors. Troop 65 will receive several awards. The troop is very active. Scoutmaster Chester Anderson reports that the troop has passed only a couple of weekly meetings in about three and a half years.

PROCES REOPENED—Fayetteville, Sept. 14 (AP)—An investigation of alleged payroll irregularities in the construction of the sewerage disposal plant has been reopened by the Washington County grand jury.

The jury, reconvening here yesterday, called Mayor George Sander and members of the city council for testimony.
